Big City Paws. Small Town Care.

VERSION 2.0 · UPDATED JULY 2026

01 / BRAND STATEMENT

Who we are.

The brand statement below is the anchor for how we speak about ourselves. Use it verbatim on the About page and on sign-offs. Every other piece of copy — headlines, taglines, social bios, email replies — should feel like it came from the same voice.

“Born and raised in Stuyvesant Town–Peter Cooper Village, we're not just your dog walkers — we're your neighbors. To us, pets aren't clients; they're family. And we can't wait to make yours part of ours.”

Tagline

Big City Paws. Small Town Care.

Positioning

Neighborhood-first pet care in Stuyvesant Town, East Village, Gramercy, and Murray Hill. Available 365 days a year, with same-day requests welcome.

02 / LOGO

The mark.

Our logo is a single continuous line drawing of a dog and cat, paired with the wordmark. It signals gentle, hand-made care — the opposite of a franchise or app. Always use the provided SVG files. Never redraw the mark, never recolor it, never distort it.

PRIMARY LOCKUP

File: dogwalkin_logo.svg · Use for headers, About page, email signatures, printed materials — anywhere with room for the full lockup.

ICON & REVERSED VARIANT

Icon only

File: dogwalkin_icon_only.svg

Favicon, nav bar icon, social avatar. Use on white or parchment.

Reversed on brand teal

Same icon file, fill set to white

Use on teal or dark backgrounds. Never on non-brand color.

Rules for use.

Clear space

Give the mark room to breathe. The minimum clear space on all sides equals the height of the letter D in the wordmark (or half the icon diameter, whichever is greater). Nothing — text, edges, other logos — enters that zone.

Minimum size

Full lockup: no smaller than 140px wide on screen, or 1.25 inches wide in print.

Icon only: no smaller than 32px on screen, or 0.35 inches in print.

Don't

- Don't recolor the mark. Black on light, white on dark — nothing else.
- Don't stretch, skew, or distort the proportions.
- Don't add drop shadows, outlines, glows, or gradients.
- Don't recreate, redraw, or trace the icon by hand — always use the provided SVG.
- Don't crop the wordmark or use just part of the illustration.
- Don't place over busy photos without a solid or semi-transparent surface behind it.
- Don't pair with a second logo without at least the clear-space gap between them.

03 / COLOR

Palette.

Teal is our signature — it does the heavy lifting for CTAs, nav, and highlights. Pup Gold is the warm accent pulled from the dog's coat in older marks; it still lives on as our secondary. Ink and warm gray carry the type. Everything else is supporting cast.

Brand Teal

#00C4B4

Primary. CTAs, nav accents, highlights, logo on white.

Deep Teal

#00897B

Hover states, links, eyebrow labels, footer accents.

Teal Mist

#E0F7F5

Section backgrounds, card fills, quiet zones.

Pup Gold

#D49A3C

Warm accent. Pulled from the earlier mark; use sparingly.

Ink

#1A1A1A

Headings, body text, primary logo fill.

Warm Gray

#5C5C5C

Secondary body text, captions, labels.

Parchment

#F7F7F5

Alternate section backgrounds, off-white surfaces.

Amber

#F2A623

Star ratings and seasonal accents only. Not for CTAs.

All tokens are defined as CSS custom properties in `brand_assets/colors.css` (`--teal`, `--teal-dark`, `--teal-mist`, `--pup-gold`, `--ink`, `--warm-gray`, `--parchment`, `--amber`). Never hardcode hex values in stylesheets — always reference the token.

04 / TYPOGRAPHY

Type system.

Two families, used with discipline. Georgia handles display — it carries warmth and neighborhood familiarity without feeling twee. Arial handles everything else — clean, legible, native to every device.

DISPLAY / Georgia Bold

Dog walking and pet sitting in your neighborhood.

H1 · Georgia Bold 32–48px · Line height 1.15 · Color: Ink (#1A1A1A)

PULL QUOTE / Georgia Italic

“My dog adores their walks with Dog Walkin.com. I've noticed a positive difference in their energy.”

Pull quotes · Georgia Italic 16–20px · Line height 1.5 · Color: Ink (#1A1A1A)

BODY / Arial Regular

Professional dog walking and pet sitting in Stuyvesant Town, East Village, Gramercy, and Murray Hill. Available 365 days a year, with same-day requests welcome. Text at this size should feel comfortable to read on both desktop and phone.

Body · Arial Regular 15–17px · Line height 1.6 · Color: Ink (#1A1A1A) or Warm Gray (#5C5C5C)

Labels & nav use Arial Medium, uppercase, tracked +0.08em, in Deep Teal (#00897B). Lead copy — page intros and hero subtitles — is Arial Light 18–22px in Warm Gray. Never mix families beyond these roles.

05 / BRAND VALUES

What we stand for.

Three commitments that every touchpoint — every walk, every reply, every page on the site — needs to reinforce.

365

Available every day.

Weekends, snowstorms, holidays. We don't stop because pets don't stop needing us. Same-day requests are welcome — this is not a marketing line, it's the standard.

01

Born & raised here.

We grew up in Stuyvesant Town. We know the buildings, the doormen, the pigeons, the best off-leash hours at the dog runs. Our neighborhood knowledge is a feature, not a bio note.

03

Genuine animal lovers.

Pets aren't clients; they're family. That means treating every dog like ours, including the difficult ones. It also means we say no to the rare situation where we can't provide the care an animal deserves.

06 / VOICE & TONE

How we sound.

Warm, direct, and slightly disarming. We're not a corporate service — we're the neighbor with the leash. Copy should read like a text from a friend who's also good at their job.

We are	We are not
Warm and specific	Cold or generic
Direct — plain English	Corporate speak or jargon
Neighborly, with local detail	Anonymous or interchangeable
Confident about our knowledge of dogs	Boastful or salesy
Comfortable with humor	Cutesy, punny, or performatively adorable
Honest about scheduling and pricing	Vague, hedged, or hidden

07 / PHOTOGRAPHY

How we show ourselves.

Authentic, candid, natural light. City streets, parks, genuine moments. The goal is for every photo to feel like it was taken by someone who genuinely loves dogs — because it was.

Image checklist

- Natural light only — no flash or studio lighting.
- Candid moments preferred over posed shots.
- NYC settings: streets, stoops, dog runs, East Village.
- Show the dog's personality, not just their appearance.
- Never use filters that alter color significantly.
- Faces of walkers are fine; never photograph clients without permission.
- Prefer horizontal aspect ratios for web; keep verticals for Instagram Stories.

File naming

All photography lives in brand_assets/photos/. Files follow the pattern subject-NNN.jpg — for example, dog-014.jpg, cat-003.jpg, hero-001.jpg, david-001.jpg. Never rename existing files; add a new number instead.

Never use

- Stock photography — even if it looks close. Every image must be real work.
- Screenshots of other apps or services.
- Photos with identifiable license plates, addresses, or building numbers.
- Illustrations or clipart that aren't the logo mark.
